

THE GOSPEL of JOHN

THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

John 20:1-10

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb.

² So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them,

John 20:1-10

“They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”³ So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb.⁴ Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

John 20:1-10

⁵ And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷ and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. ⁸ Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; ⁹ for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

John 20:1-10

John 20:1-10

¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to their homes.

The Resurrection of Jesus

1. Jesus had an unique bodily resurrection.

The Resurrection of Jesus

The background features a dark, textured illustration of the Resurrection. It shows a central figure, likely Jesus, emerging from a tomb. The scene is rendered in a style reminiscent of a woodcut or engraving, with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading. The color palette is dominated by deep blues, reds, and oranges, creating a somber yet hopeful atmosphere. The composition is framed by large, overlapping geometric shapes in these colors, which partially obscure the underlying scene.

1. Jesus had an unique bodily resurrection.
2. Jesus had a Trinitarian resurrection.

Romans 8:11

If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.

The Resurrection of Jesus

The background features a detailed illustration of the Resurrection of Jesus. It shows a central figure, Jesus, rising from a stone tomb. He is depicted with a beard and long hair, wearing a blue robe. The scene is set in a dark, cavernous space with other figures in various poses, some appearing to be in shock or confusion. The overall color palette is dominated by deep blues, reds, and oranges, creating a dramatic and somber atmosphere.

1. Jesus had an unique bodily resurrection.
2. Jesus had a Trinitarian resurrection.
3. Jesus had a firstfruits resurrection of ours to come.

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

For we know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. ² For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling,

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

³ if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. ⁴ For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed,

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵ He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

The Resurrection of Jesus

The background features a detailed illustration of the Resurrection of Jesus. It shows the stone rolled away from the tomb, the empty tomb, and the presence of the Resurrection Guards. The scene is set in a dark, cavernous space with dramatic lighting. The illustration is rendered in a style that combines fine line work with areas of solid color, primarily in shades of red, orange, and blue. The overall composition is dynamic, with strong diagonal lines and a sense of movement and divine light.

2. Jesus had a Trinitarian resurrection.
3. Jesus had a firstfruits resurrection of ours to come.
4. In Jesus, believers are already spiritually resurrected.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold the new has come.
