

the HEART
of CHRIST

John 13:1-5

Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

John 13:1-5

² During supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, ³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God,⁴ rose from supper. He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. ⁵ Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

John 13:1-5

Ephesians 3:17-19

. . . so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love,¹⁸ may have strength to comprehend with all the saints

Ephesians 3:17-19

what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 9 and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness
of God.

John 14:16-20

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, 17 even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it

John 14:16-20

neither sees him nor knows him.
You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. 18 "I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while

John 14:16-20

and the world will see me no more, but you will see me.

Because I live, you also will live.

20 In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

John 14:1-3

"Let not your hearts be troubled.
Believe in God; believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

John 14:1-3
