Psalm 131

¹ O LORD, my heart is not lifted up;
my eyes are not raised too high;
I do not occupy myself with things
too great and too marvelous for me.
² But I have calmed and quieted my soul,
like a weaned child with its mother;

Psalm 131

like a weaned child is my soul within me.

³ O Israel, hope in the LORD

from this time forth and forevermore.

He IS | Omniscient

God knows all things past, present, and future, and all things possible as well as actual.

“God knows instantly and effortlessly all manner and all matters, all mind and every mind, all spirit and all spirits, all being and every being, all creaturehood and all creatures, every plurality and all pluralities, all law and every law, all relations, all causes, all thoughts, all mysteries, all enigmas, all feeling, all desires, every unuttered secret, all thrones and dominions, all personalities, all things visible and invisible in heaven and in earth, motion, space, time, life, death, good, evil, heaven, and hell.”

-A.W. Tozer

He IS | Omniscient

Because God is omniscient, we are fully known by Him, so we can rest before Him free from the anxiety of human not-knowing.

He IS | Omniscient

To be loved but not known is comforting but superficial.

To be known and not loved is our greatest fear.

But to be fully known and truly loved is what every human heart craves.

And to us who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope that is set before us in the gospel, how unutterably sweet is the knowledge that our Heavenly Father knows us completely. No talebearer can inform on us, no enemy can make an accusation stick; no forgotten skeleton can come tumbling out of some hidden closet to abash us and expose our past; no unsuspected weakness in our characters can come to light to turn God away from us, since He knew us utterly before we knew Him and called us to Himself in the full knowledge of everything that was against us. “For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.”

He IS | Omniscient

God's omniscience frees us from the anxiety of human not-knowing

Psalm 131:1

¹ O LORD, my heart is not lifted up;
my eyes are not raised too high;
I do not occupy myself with things
too great and too marvelous for me.

Psalm 131:2

² But I have calmed and quieted my soul,
like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me.

Psalm 131:3

³ O Israel, hope in the LORD
from this time forth and forevermore.

Reflection:

Because God is omniscient:

Rejoice that you are fully known and truly loved by Him.

Be comforted by God's omniscience knowing you will never "fall through the cracks".

Are you resting before Him free from the anxiety of human not-knowing?

Have you Embrace your limits?

How does your limited knowledge humble you to pursue knowledge in a way that trusts the One who knows all things?

Confession:

“Lord forgive me when I have thought too little of you. Forgive me when I have entertained thoughts that are unworthy of you. Help me to trust You to be who You are and allow You to change me and to free me so that I might be more like Your Son.”
