Hebrews 3:1-6

Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, <sup>2</sup> who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house.

Hebrews 3:1-6

<sup>3</sup> For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)

Hebrews 3:1-6

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, <sup>6</sup> but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house, if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope.

The Faithful Son

An antidote to spiritual drifting and our strength for endurance comes from considering Jesus.

The Faithful Son

Consider Jesus in His office: He is our apostle and high priest

Consider Jesus in His work: He is the creator and the builder of the “house”

Consider Jesus in His person: He is the Son over the “house”

Hebrews 3:1

Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

Hebrews 3:2

<sup>2</sup> who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house.

Numbers 12:6-9

And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream. <sup>7</sup> Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house. <sup>8</sup> With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles,

Numbers 12:6-9

and he beholds the form of the LORD.
Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?" <sup>9</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed.

The Faithful Son

Consider Jesus in His work: He is the creator and the builder of the “house”

Hebrews 3:3-4

<sup>3</sup> For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)

1 Peter 2:4-5

As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, <sup>5</sup> you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

The Faithful Son

Consider Jesus in His person: He is the Son over the “house”

Hebrews 3:5-6a

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, <sup>6</sup> but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son.

Hebrews 3:6b

And we are his house, if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope.

Hebrews 3:1, 6b

Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope.

“ God, the God of the universe, has summoned you to himself. He has called you, has drawn you, has redeemed you, has placed his stamp of ownership on you, has beckoned you to himself, and has established with you a relationship of love and intimacy and joy that will last forever. This is what it means to be called from heaven.” -Sam Storms

Consider Jesus:

Consider your identity in Him: Are you growing in holiness?

Consider your confession of Him: Who do you say that He is?

Consider your confidence with Him: Is He your only hope and in whom is all your boasting?
