Hebrews 11:1-7

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ² For by it the people of old received their commendation.

³ By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God,
God,

Hebrews 11:1-7

so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. ⁴ By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died,

Hebrews 11:1-7

he still speaks. ⁵ By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. ⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. ⁷ By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household.

Hebrews 11:1-7

Hebrews 11:1-7

By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

The Faith of Noah

In His love and justice, God will judge the evil and wickedness done in this world, but through faith, evil sinners like us can be rescued from the judgment that is to come.

The Faith of Noah

Noah believed God

Obediently prepared

Condemned the world

Inherited righteousness

Genesis 6:5

The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Hebrews 11:7

⁷ By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household.

“...here is the difference between people of faith and people of the world, the people in the world did not tremble in fear until the water reached the rooftops, but Noah trembled in fear when God did speak.”

Pattern of Redemption:

Man Sins

God Promises Judgment

God Provides Salvation

Man Repents + Believes

Hebrews 11:7

⁷ By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.
